

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 1 A large Victorian period mahogany wall clock, As Found, 124cm high and 52cm at its widest, with eight day striking movement, weights and pendulum, with a winding key and door key, white enamel dial worn and appears to read Jas Park Preston, not tested, lots of wear to the case, notably at the lower where veneered has dried out £150-250
- 2 A small drop dial wall clock, As Found, the 19th century mahogany veneered case with a 20th century wooden bezel and dial supporting a nice fusee 30 hour movement, with pendulum, damages
£40-60
- 3 A second half 20th century skeleton style clock, under a glass dome, marked to rear Original Kieninger, with its key and pendulum
£40-60
- 4 An 18th century and later brackett clock, As Found, the silvered dial, 15cm, marked Corral Lutterworth for Francis Corral, in case which appears to be made later and damaged, containing a fusee eight day movement with nicely engraved back plate, pendulum also appears to be later, total height is 30cm
£100-200
- 5 A 19th century French marble and bronze clock, the red marble base with white dial marked Vor (Victor) Paillard & Romain Fants de Bronzes Paris, cracked, with applied gilt embellishments and having eight day drum movement, accessed by damaged glazed door to rear, supporting a heavy bronze figural group, lacking part of finial held by figures, total height is 56.6cm, some damages to marble and other wear to gilt mounts (2)
£500-1,000
- 6 An 19th century and later brackett clock, As Found, the white enamel dial, repainted, marked Thomas Nelson Market Deeping, in a wooden and gilt metal case with brass fish grill sides, 44cm high, probably a later case, supporting a brass 30 hour fusee movement, with a key and pendulum
£200-300
- 7 A William IV or early Victorian rosewood mantle clock, As Found, 48.5cm high, the Gothic style case with two pillars with spires, damaged, and having some inlaid brass and gilt metal embellishments such as side pierced grills and rear door in front of silk panels, with painted dial marked A. Stewart London, eight day fusee movement with striking bell, with pendulum and key, case with cracks and losses, rear door mishapen, dial cracked and chipped and worn £200-300
- 8 Two carriage timepieces, one larger repeater clock from Gaydon & Sons, appears to run, case worn and top glass loose (2) £80-120
- 9 A 1970s brass carriage timepiece by Matthew Norman, sold with original book box, foam perished, clock is 15cm with handle down, rear door not flush and warped
£100-200
- 10 A 1970s Seiko 30 day wall clock, 43.5cm high wooden veneered and painted case, silvered dial above date, with key, Ref. 4PC-045-2 £40-60
- 11 A George III period striking bracket clock by Eardley Norton, total height 55.5cm, the mahogany case with applied gilt metal embellishments, with folding handles and glazed panels all around, the gilt and silvered dial marked Yeldrea Norton London and numbered 1491 and having date aperture, the fusee movement now with nylon and having pendulum, nice engraved to back plate and numbered 1491, appears to run as chimes correctly on the hour when repeater chord is pulled, case worn and front and rear doors warped, gilt mounts may be later and no key present
£1,500-2,500
- 12 A first half 20th century French brass carriage timepiece, appears to run and chime, numbered 10464 and with key £50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 13 A vintage watch repairers cabinet and contents, the rectangular chest of drawers full of old watch parts and various parts of pocket and wristwatches and much more, includes two Longines movements, one running, a Movado dial, a small pot of cut rubies, and lots of other useful items. The cabinet weighs 15.63 KG and measures 66cm wide by 32cm high and 21 cm deep
£50-100
- 14 An early 20th century "Electric Clock" by The Reason MFG Co Ltd, under glass dome on a circular mahogany base, total height is 34cm, the circular brass base plate with plaque marked ELECTRIC CLOCK MADE BY THE REASON MFG Cp Ltd BRIGHTON MURDAY'S PATENT, having two electric coils to rear and with two supports for movement with balance wheel and spring below mechanism, with what appears to be a later chapter ring dial, dome appears OK and base with typical wear £500-1,000
- 15 An early 20th century electronic mantle clock, the wooden base supporting two thick pillars with clock mechanism and pendulum, 35.5cm high, lacks glass dome and As Found £50-100
- 16 An early 20th century Eureka Clock Co Ltd electronic brass and glazed mantle clock, 33cm high, the shaped case with movement and enamel dial, marked No. 7049 and Patent 14614 and 1906, overall in fair condition, chip to front door in top left corner and other typical wear £500-1,000
- 17 An early 20th century Barr electric mantle clock, 24cm high, on wooden base, with a pendulum which appears to fit, lacks glass dome, lots of signs of wear and battery area some signs of corrosion
£50-100
- 18 An early 20th century Bulle Clockette electric mantle clock, 22.5cm high brass and glazed case, marked to dial, lots of signs of wear
£50-100
- 19 An early 20th century Eureka Clock Co electric mantle clock, on mahogany rectangular base, 21cm high, having two pillars to front supporting black metal chapter ring in front of skeleton movement, numbered 3935, signs of typical wear possibly lacks glass dome £100-200
- 20 A first half 20th century Military style dashboard clock, presented in a later wooden green painted housing stand, black dial with two subsidiary dials and facility to change white and red dot, stem loose and in need of attention but appears to be able to run £50-100
- 21 An early 20th century French electric wall clock by Paul Garner, the brass case with ribbon to upper, 20cm high, white enamel dial, lacks glass, As Found and movement rusty £50-100
- 22 An early 20th century Bulle electric wall clock, the brass and glazed case, 30cm high, housing silvered dial and movement with magnetic pendant, As Found £50-100
- 23 An early 20th century electric wall clock, the wooden and glazed case, 75cm, lacks pendulum and As Found £30-50
- 24 Four timepieces, including a gilt Luxor World travel clock retailed by Huber, appears to run, some wear, 11cm diameter, together with a presentation mantle clock, a cannon shaped example and a desk clock from J.M. Lindemann
£50-100
- 25 An early 20th century ATO electric mantle clock, the marble and chromed and glazed case stands 34.5cm high, with silver dial and subsidiary marked ATO above chromed electromagnetic pendant, bezel loose, overall OK just some fatigue to case and small chips to marble
£300-500
- 26 A Victorian period Black Forest style Cuckoo mantle clock, As Found, 49cm high, with pediment having door and mechanised bird, with eight day movement, does appear to work
£100-200

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 27 A Victorian period slate and marble mantle clock, with eight day movement, 30cm high £50-70
- 28 A late Victorian or Edwardian mahogany and inlaid mantle clock, 38cm high, silvered engraved dial with an eight day Westminster chiming movement £80-120
- 29 A pretty French late 19th century brass and enamelled mantle clock, the brass and glazed case, 26.5cm, with champeve decoration to pillars, enamel dial and having eight day drum movement with champeve pendant and two mercury glass weights
£200-300
- 30 A French late 19th century brass mantle clock, the brass and glazed case, 26.5cm, white enamel dial, drum movement, marked Jupy Freres, with pendant having two mercury glass weights
£80-120
- 31 A Victorian oak mantle clock, 33cm high, with eight day movement and gilt and silvered dial £80-120
- 32 A Victorian oak mantle clock, domed top, 28cm high, with eight day movement and gilt and silvered dial £50-80
- 33 Three brass carriage timepieces, one oval example, 12.5cm with handle folded down, another and a smaller example (3)
£100-200
- 34 A brass carriage timepiece with barometer, in a pagoda shaped case, 19.5cm high with handle down and having compass inset to top £100-200
- 35 Four clock, one an oak mantle clock marked Greenwood with Westminster chiming eight day movement, another an Edwardian mahogany and inlaid example, 25cm high, another similar period, 25cm wide, and a small wall clock (4)
£100-200
- 36 Two clocks, an Edwardian mahogany and inlaid mantle clock, 22.5cm high, and a small wall clock, 31cm high (2) £50-80
- 37 A Victorian and later dial wall clock, 39cm wide, having later dial marked with George VI cypher, case lacks lower door, single fusee movement appears to be a 30 hour example and mid 19th century, lacks key and pendulum
£150-250
- 38 A late Victorian or Edwardian period wall clock, 33cm diameter, crown cypher to dial, single fusee movement, with rusty key and a pendulum
£50-100
- 39 An Edwardian mahogany wall clock, 100cm high, with cream coloured dial and having single fusee movement, with pendulum
£100-200
- 40 A late Victorian or Edwardian Vienna regulator wall clock, some elements loose, with two weights and pendulum
£60-100
- 41 A late Victorian or Edwardian Vienna regulator wall clock, some loose elements but appears complete, with two weights and pendulum
£60-100
- 42 Two wall clocks, similar to Viennese regulators, As Found (2)
£60-100
- 43 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Submariner, with a green to black faded face and gold bezel.
£50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 44 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex GMT - Master II with a green face and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 45 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex GMT - Master II with a black face and gold and black bezel.
£50-100
- 46 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex GMT - Master II with a green face and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 47 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Explorer II with a black face and Classic Coke black and red bezel.
£50-100
- 48 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Daytona with a turquoise face and polished bezel.
£50-100
- 49 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Daytona with a black face and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 50 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Sea Dweller with a black face and green bezel.
£50-100
- 51 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Submariner Yacht - Master with a black face and blue and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 52 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Yacht - Master with a black face and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 53 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex GMT - Master II with a black face and gold bezel
£50-100
- 54 A modern Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Deepsea Sea Dweller with a blue to black faded face and gold bezel.
£50-100
- 55 A second half 20th century Mystery Clock, 27.5cm high, with a bronzed elephant supporting a pendulum timepiece on its trunk (2) £60-100
- 56 A French late 19th century brass mantle clock, having enamel Roman numerals and eight day movement, 42cm high, with pendulum
£40-60
- 57 A late Victorian alubaster mantle clock, As Found, sold with a glass dome and wooden base, 49cm high £50-100
- 58 A late 19th century brass carriage timepiece, 12.5cm high and 15cm with handle raised, some wear but appears to run £50-100
- 59 A late 19th century "starburst" wall clock, marked J.S. Yabsley to dial and having French drum movement, 68cm wide, some cracks
£80-120

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 60 A late 19th century French ormolu and porcelain mounted mantle clock, 38 cm high, with Sevres style dial and two panels inset to Louis XVI style case, eight day drum movement, together with a wooden base and a key and a pendulum
£80-120
- 61 A 1980s limited edition The Mariner Clock by Mappin & Webb, the brass skeleton style ship's watch striking clock after the model made for the Festival of Britain by Frodsham under a glass bell which is struck by a hammer for the chiming, with plaque marked Maritime England 1982 and marked Mappin & Webb with serial number 054 to reverse, on a wooden base, 26cm high with handle raised, overall in good condition but not tested, with instructions and cardboard box £200-300
- 62 An Edwardian walnut cased mantle clock, 30cm high with handle raised, with eight day movement, overall good but some typical wear and damages, with an associated key £60-100
- 63 A late 19th century wooden mantle clock from the Ansonia Clock Co, 37.5cm high, with pendulum and keys £50-80
- 64 A Victorian slate mantle clock, 34cm wide, some damages, with eight day movement and having inset malechite panels £40-60
- 65 An Art Deco period "The Reliable Chess Timer" twin clock in oak case, 27cm wide, damaged to left corner, both clocks running when wound and operating, assembled by Willaim E. Tanner
£400-600
- 66 A pair of 1977 Silver Jubilee commemorative silver plated carriage timepieces, together a Rotary watch is box (3) £40-60
- 67 An early 20th century German mantle clock, under glass dome, chipped and total height is 31cm, As Found £40-60
- 68 A William IV period mahogany bracket clock, total height 560cm, having twin fusee striking movement, fish scale grills to sides and brass mounts, some damages to veneer and case and one handle roundel broken, marked Rowell & Son Oxford to dial, with a pendulum and keys
£150-250
- 69 An early 20th century brass and porcelain mounted mantle clock, 29cm high, As Found, with nicely painted panel to dial and sides, lacks reare cover, eight day drum movement
£60-100
- 70 A vintage brass carriage timepiece from Garrard & Co, 15cm high with handle raised, with a key £50-100
- 71 An early 20th century brass and porcelain mounted mantle clock, 33cm high, with a porcelain dial painted with floral garlands, eight drum movement, lacks rear cover, with pendulum
£60-100
- 72 An early 20th century brass carriage repeater timepiece, 17cm with handle raised, appears to run, some wear £150-250
- 73 An Edwardian walnut and ebonised mantle clock from J.W. Benson, 24cm high, with enamel dial and having eight day drum movement and with pendulum, appears to run £60-100
- 74 A small early 20th century brass carriage repeater timepiece, 12.5cm with handle raised, appears to run and with typical wear £150-250
- 75 A large late Victorian oak cased mantle clock, 53cm high, architectural case with brass and stell dial, marked Examined by Dent & Co, having Westminster chiming facility, appears to run and operate, with pendulum
£80-120

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 76 A mid 20th century brass carriage timepiece, As Found, 14.5cm with handle raised, damage and repair to dial, appears to run, other typical wear £40-60
- 77 A late 19th century French mantle clock, 45cm high, modelled with a bronzed spelter figure of Fleur D-Ete beside a clock on alabaster plinth
£60-100
- 78 A mid 20th century brass carriage timepiece, 17cm with handle raised, appears to run, some wear £50-100
- 79 A French Louis XV style painted and gilt mantle clock, 29cm high, having white enamel dial and 30 hour drum movement, with a key and pendulum
£70-100
- 80 A cased mid 20th century brass carriage timepiece, 16.5cm high with handle raised, marked Reid & Sons Paris to dial, with a travel case £50-100
- 81 A late 19th century French pewter mantle clock, 41.5cm high, surmounted with a cherub playing a flute, above enamel dial marked Hatton & Paris, with brass lower, damages and repairs, with pendulum and key £60-100
- 82 A cased mid 20th century brass carriage timepiece, 14.5cm high with handle raised, with a travel case £50-100
- 83 An early 20th century and later Boulle style mantle clock, 33cm high, having later applied young boy with skipping rope screwed on a plastic plinth to the top, with gilt mounts
£50-100
- 84 An early 20th century American mantle clock from the Ansonia Clock Company, 41.5cm high, green and gilt body and applied gilt metal mounts in the Louis XV style with enamel dial and eight day drum movement
£80-120
- 85 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust with a black face and gold bezel
£80-120
- 86 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust with a purple face and chrome bezel.
£80-120
- 87 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust with a purple face and black bezel small chip in paint on bezel - see images
£80-120
- 88 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust with a Light green face and chrome bezel
£80-120
- 89 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust and roman numerals with a Light brown face and chrome bezel
£80-120
- 90 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Oyster perpetual Datejust and roman numerals with a Light brown face and chrome bezel
£80-120
- 91 A modern Watch Dealership style wall clock, 34cm diameter, in the style of a Rolex Sky Dweller Oyster Perpetual, blue face and black bezel
£80-120
- 92 A Vienna Black forest carved wall clock, featuring intricate carvings of a Fox and Pheasant with Stags head to top, together with an eight day regulator clock. some damage to the stags antlers
£200-300

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 93 A George V period 18ct gold half hunter lady's pocket watch, 40.5mm and 64.2 g, with blue enamel Roman numerals to front, hallmarked to inner of rear cover and stem, presentation engraving to rear cover, appears to run, with some wear and typical scratching, sold in fitted Bristol Goldsmiths' Alliance box (2)
£400-600
- 94 A George V period Waltham 9ct gold open faced pocket watch, AF, 48mm and 84g, engraved initials to rear, hallmarked to rear cover and engraved from Mother, hallmarked to stem, with base metal hinged case, dial cracked, appears to run but not holding wind, lacks hour hand £250-350
- 95 A Victorian silver open faced pocket watch with a stand, 50mm watch with engraved dial, crudley engraved to inner dust cover, sold with a nice metal stand having bird (2)
£100-200
- 96 Four Victorian and later pocket watches, a gold plated full hunter, an open faced examlpe by CharlesBenedict, a silver plated half hunter and another base metal, two watch chains, one with silver medallion, AF
£80-120
- 97 Two Victorian and later ladies pocket watches, one a gold plated half hunter by Waltham, and a silver exmaple (2) £50-100
- 98 A late 19th century 14ct gold open faced pocket, presented on a 9ct gold bow brooch support, total weight 49g, the engraved dial watch 38mm wide and having base metal inner cover, overwound
£300-500
- 99 A late Victorian 9ct gold watch chain, 52cm long and 24.3g, having snap clasp to each end of belcher ling chain and sliding t-bar £500-700
- 100 An Edwardian 18ct gold half hunter lady's pocket watch from Goldsmiths & Silversmiths, 35mm and 45g, with engraved initial D to rear, hallmarked to both rear covers and stem, London 1905, in original box £500-700
- 101 A Victorian 18ct gold pocket watch by Sweetinburgh, 47mm and hallmarked to both rear covers and stem, As Found, but appears to run, with a 15ct gold t-bar and a snap clasp, total weight is 88g
£500-800
- 102 An early 20th century Elgin open faced pocket watch with a gold plated chain and a gold half sovereign, 48.5mm wide gold plated watch, running, numbered 37528699, with a watch chain supporting an Edward VII half sovereign with applied loop and dated 1910
£300-500
- 103 Two pocket watches, including a Benson full hunter silver example, running but some denting and wear, together with a Langendorf gold plated open faced watch, As Found (2) £60-100
- 104 Five various silver pocket watches, As Found, a large hunter, two open faced, and two ladies examples, together with a base metal pocket watch £100-200
- 105 A Victorian silver fancy link watch chain and vesta case, 73.5g, together with two base metal vesta cases £50-100
- 106 A Victorian silver open faced pocket watch with a silver watch chain, together with a gold plated modern pocket watch and chain (2) £100-150
- 107 A damaged 9ct cased open faced pocket watch, 48mm, and total weight is 72g, rear cover marked 9C, damaged and loose, case dented, not running £80-120
- 108 A Victorian silver open faced pocket and other items, including a heavily worn gold plated Waltham pocket watch, two Perspex watch domes with bases and brass carriage timepiece and another quartz brass clock
£60-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 109 A collection of pocket watches and pocket watch and wristwatch movements, As Found, including a large Victorian silver open faced pocket watch and two ladies examples, a silver case, other base metal pocket watches and a large amount of movements £80-120
- 110 An Edwardian 18ct gold open faced pocket watch by A. L. Perrett, 50mm case, 113.9g, white enamel dial with subsidiary, running well, engraved initials to rear, hallmarked to outer and dust cover and stem, some typical wear £600-1,000
- 111 An Edwardian 18ct gold half hunter pocket watch, 48mm, 101.8g, hallmarked to all three covers and stem, appears to run, typical wear for its age but overall good, engraved initials to rear cover
£1,000-1,500
- 112 A Victorian 18ct gold open faced pocket watch, 40mm, 51.2g, engraved silvered dial, appears to run, hallmarked to dust and rear cover for Birmingham 1879, typical wear £500-800
- 113 Seven various watches, As Found, including a dashboard clock, two small silver open faced pocket watches, a gold plated half hunter and more £60-100
- 114 A George V silver open faced pocket watch, 49mm, appears to run, typical wear £50-100
- 115 A Victorian openfaced 18ct gold cased pocket watch, 43mm, 51.5g, engraved gilt dial, marked C18 to rear cover, base metal dust cover, appears to run and with typical wear £300-500
- 116 A George III silver inner of a pair case pocket watch by Thomas Hughes of London, As Found, 44mm, damages
£50-100
- 117 A George V 9ct gold open face pocket watch by Waltham, 49.5mm, 93.2g, white enamel dial with subsidiary, appears to run well, numbered 24081779, hallmarked to rear and dust cover and stem, engraved to dust cover, some minor wear
£500-800
- 118 A George V 9ct gold open face pocket watch from Grosvenor, 45mm, 47.5g, silvered dial with subsidiary, appears to run well, overall good but lots of scratching and wear to opener
£250-350
- 119 A George V 9ct gold open face pocket watch by J.W. Benson, 49.5mm, 80.6g, white enamel dial with subsidiary, appears to run well, hallmarked to rear and dust cover and stem, engraved to rear cover, some minor wear £500-800
- 120 Two 9ct gold cased ladies wristwatch heads, one a Rolco on a gold coloured bracelet, the other smaller by Rone and on gold plated strap, gross weight 25g (2) £80-120
- 121 A 1940s Vacheron & Constantin 18ct gold cased manual wind wristwatch head, 32mm, gilt dial with partial numerals, engraved HHF to rear, movement numbered: 458524, appears to run, lots of signs of wear from useage, now on a replacement expanding strap, see following lot, gross weight 61.2g
£500-1,000
- 122 A vintage gold adjustable watch strap, 37.6g, engraved initials HHF, see previous lot, not hallmarked but appears to be 18ct gold £800-1,200
- 123 A c1960 Movado Queenmatic 18ct gold bracelet lady's wristwatch, square case, 19mm, on integrated mesh strap graduating to 15mm at clasp, all marked 750, gross weight 44.4g, lots of signs of wear but appears to run £800-1,200

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 124 A c1950s Tissot (Et Fils) 18ct gold cased manual wind lady's wristwatch, 16mm, on black leather strap, lots of signs of wear and As Found, appears to run, gross weight 15.2g
£120-180
- 125 A c1930s 9ct gold cased lady's wristwatch, 26mm, on black leather strap, lots of signs of wear but appears to run, gross weight 19.2g
£80-120
- 126 A vintage Baume & Mercier stainless steel wristwatch head, 33mm, AF, silvered dial with partial numerals, not running, lots of signs of wear and useage, lacks strap
£80-120
- 127 A 1930s Longines stainless steel manual wind wristwatch head, 31mm square case, silvered dial with subsidiary, lots of signs of wear and useage, appears to run, on a leather strap
£60-100
- 128 Three boxed Seiko wristwatches, one a Bell-O-Matic, a quartz example and a digital watch, AF (3 plus boxes)
£60-100
- 129 A collection of various watches, including a Basis diver's style watch head, other Sekonda watches and more, also an Ingersoll pocket watch
£50-100
- 130 Two Gucci quartz fashion ladies wristwatches, one gold plated with MOP dial and the other stainless steel with mirrored bezel, sold with a Gucci watch box and outer card box £150-250
- 131 A modern Pierre Renoir quartz 9ct gold lady's wristwatch, 12mm case on 9ct gold strap, 9.4g
£150-200
- 132 Three wristwatches, one is a gold plated and stainless steel Hanowa automatic calendar wristwatch head, 33.6mm, appears to run, a Roma Executive Datomatic similar example, and a Regency lady's manual wind stainless steel wristwatch in a Majex case (4) £50-100
- 133 Two modern Vience Quartz 9ct gold ladies wristwatches, 30.7g, both appear unworn and in boxes, one in white gold, the other in yellow gold and set with eight clear stones
£400-600
- 134 Ten modern Ingersoll Diamond quartz wristwatches, each boxed and appear unworn, various styles
£200-300
- 135 A collection of modern ladies wristwatches, approx 14 in boxes and pouches, one automatic example from Constantin Weisz, two from Gamages, a Michael Kors, two Diamond & Co and others, appear unworn
£150-250
- 136 Ten modern Ingersoll Diamond quartz wristwatches, each boxed and appear unworn, various styles
£200-300
- 137 A collection of eleven modern health and smart watches, each boxed and unused but boxes have been opened, including two Watch GT Pro examples, and more (11)
£40-60
- 138 Three modern Earnsham wristwatches, including a limited edition set with automatic wristwatch, pocket watch, pen, rotating cufflinks and wallet in a presentation box, a boxed automatic watch and pen set, and another automatic watch with a pair of cufflinks also boxed (3)
£100-200
- 139 Two modern Constantin Weisz automatic wristwatches watches, appear unworn, one in presentation box, the other loose and in a CW eight compartment collectors' box £80-120
- 140 Five modern William Hunt quartz wristwatches, in very good condition and presented in a collectors' box with ten cushions
£50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 141 Five modern wristwatches, presented in a collectors' box, including two Christin Lars, two Montaine and a Gianni Sabatini automatic example
£50-100
- 142 Three modern Earnsham wristwatches, presented in a collectors' box, all appear unworn and automatic movements
£60-100
- 143 Four modern Gamages Automatic wristwatches, appear unworn and with boxes £80-120
- 144 Eight modern Gamages quartz ladies wristwatches, appear unworn and with boxes, one box AF
£80-120
- 145 Six modern Gamages quartz large wristwatches, appear unworn and with boxes, one box AF
£80-120
- 146 A collection of modern ladies wristwatches, all boxed and two Elle watches in purse-like bags, approx 19 £80-120
- 147 A collection of modern ladies wristwatches, most boxed and including several examples by Strada, along with Eternity, Diamond & Co and others, approx 20
£60-100
- 148 An Art Deco period platinum and diamond lady's cocktail dress wristwatch, 16mm wide and 25mm high, total weight 12.1g, octagonal with hinged lugs and bezel encrusted with diamonds, on black silk strap
£150-250
- 149 Three ladies watches, including a Gucci gold plated example, a Seiko quartz and a manual wind fob watch in leather holder, As Found (3) £50-100
- 150 Seven various watches, including a 9ct gold cased wristwatch case marked Derrick on a rolled gold bracelet, a Jean Pierre silver watch, and others
£60-100
- 151 A c1960s Aquastar Automatic Diver's stainless steel wristwatch, 37.5mm wide case, with black dial having date aperture, rotating outer bezel, numbered 514182 and 1713 to rear cover, on a black strap. Case: with scratches and small dents and dirty, Glass: Perspex and scratched, Movement: appears to run but not inspected, Crown: original Aquastar, some signs of wear, Bracelet: possibly later and As Found £80-120
- 152 Three various watches, As Found, including a military issue Unitas, numbered to rear cover, a silver open faced pocket watch and a Zenith Cosmopolitan (3) £50-100
- 153 A modern Rado Integral cermaic and stainless steel wristwatch, 23mm wide case, box and four spare links, overall good but signs of useage
£80-120
- 154 A 1960s Garrard manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch, 33mm case, silvered dial with subsidiary, engraved to rear cover, on brown leather strap, total weight 32.8g, appears to run, with Garrard box (2)
£100-150
- 155 A modern Tag Heuer Monaco LS Linear System Automatic Chronograph stainless steel wristwatch, 42.5mm wide, having multiple subsidiary dials and date wheel and two push button stopwatch facility, numbered to rear CAL2110-0 and EPR8443, with box and guarantee booklet and card dated 2015. Case: appears good and just some minor signs of wear and some build up of dirt, Glass: good, Movement: running nicely but not inspected and stopwatch functioning well, Crown: good and original and just some minor wear, Bracelet: leather strap with stainless steel buckle with some signs of wear and useage, Box: lacks cushion
£2,000-3,000

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 156 Three various watches, including a Zodiac Olympas automatic gold plated and stainless steel example, 36mm at widest, running, sealing ring perished, movement numbered 132884, on later strap, together with a Seiko quartz in a box and a Nentime digital pendant watch £80-120
- 157 Five various watches, including an Oris manual wind example, and others £40-60
- 158 A 1960s Totary GT automatic 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 34.5mm, running but in need of attention, engraved to rear cover, on later expanding strap, total weight 53.6g
£70-100
- 159 A c1930s 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 20mm wide, As Found, on leather strap, total weight 22g
£50-100
- 160 A 1990s Longines quartz gold plated lady's wristwatch, 24mm, marked to rear cover L4 135 2 and La Grande Classique Du Longines and numbered 28781222, not running and overall good with some signs of usage and wear £70-100
- 161 Four watches and a measuring tool, including a Smith Astral 9ct gold cased manual wind watch with engraved rear cover, running, and three quartz watches, along with a Mercer calibration tool in a box £120-180
- 162 Six various watches, including a Disney Nixon Mickey Mouse watch in a box, a box Traser Alarm example, a Seiko 5 automatic and three more £60-100
- 163 A group of eight watches and an Oris alarm clock, including a Seikomatic Lady, a Casio Quartz and others £50-100
- 164 Three 9ct gold lady's wristwatches, two Rotary examples, and another damaged trench style watch on 9ct gold and sprung strap, 51.8g total weight (3)
£500-700
- 165 A c1960s Tissot manual wind gold cased wristwatch, 32mm, appears to run, on a later strap, some scratching to the case, movement not inspected, total weight 28.8g
£100-200
- 166 An Art Deco period 9ct gold mid-sized wristwatch head, 27mm, appears to run, on later leather strap, total weight is 21.6g
£80-120
- 167 A group of wristwatches and pocket watches, As Found, including two silver pocket watches and others and damaged examples and spare parts, along with an Eterna-Matic 1000 in box, engraved rear cover, a Favre-Leuba manual wind and others £80-120
- 168 A collection of c1980s Sekonda gentlemens and ladies wristwatches, approx 35 and all in boxes and appear unworn
£50-100
- 169 A collection of watches and spare parts, including a boxed and unworn blue Casio G-Shock, a Casio digital watch, several Seiko watches including a Kinetic lady's watch head, a divers watch, and much more £60-100
- 170 Three watches and a clock, including a Citizen Eco-Drive, another Citizen, an Umbro example, a watch strap, a watch box and a Greenwood mantle clock
£50-100
- 171 A collection of wristwatches, including a boxed Longines Quartz Presence, a Citizen Quartz Alarm Chronograph, a Seiko Quartz Chronograph, and many more £80-120
- 172 Nine Swatch wristwatches, As Found, various styles and sizes, some heavily worn £50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 173 A c1970s Baume & Mercier manual wind 18ct gold lady's cocktail dress wristwatch, 25mm oval textured case on an integrated pierced wire work bracelet, with blue cabochon stone to crown, 52g, in very good condition with not much signs of wear and useage, numbered to rear cover 464770 and 38244T2, appears to be running, with a B&M box £2,500-3,500
- 174 A circa 1970s Avia stainless steel manual wind wrist watch head, 33mm running but dial as found and wear to case, on later expanding strap
£20-30
- 175 A c1990s Raymond Weil Tango quartz stainless steel and gold plated wristwatch, 36mm, with white dial having date aperture, appears good and some signs of wear and useage, not currently running and new battery required £50-100
- 176 A c1990s Longines Automatic gold plated and stainless steel wristwatch, 34.5mm, ref. L4 678 2, white dial with date aperture, appears to be running, some signs of wear, on a replacement bracelet £80-120
- 177 A c1960s Kurz manual wind 18ct gold lady's cocktail dress wristwatch, AF, square 15mm case on an integrated fine mesh link strap, clasp broken and snapped off, bracelet torn and damaged, total weight 32.3g, with box
£600-800
- 178 Three silver ladies wristwatches, 126g, including a Gems example set with diamonds, a PS quartz and a silver and paste set cocktail dress watch (3)
£100-200
- 179 Two modern quartz ladies wristwatches, including a stainless steel Gucci example and a smaller gilt Maurice Lacroix, both worn (2) £60-100
- 180 A c1990s Seiko Kinetic stainless steel wristwatch, 40mm, with day and date aperture, with some service papers, has been worn and appears to run £50-80
- 181 A 1970s Bulova Longchamp manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 33mm, engraved to rear cover, appears to run, on later strap, total weight, 49.5g
£80-120
- 182 Five wrsitwatches and other items, including an Everite, Timex, Pulsar, Accurist and a Sekonda, together with various coins, some silver, two Parker pens, a silver St Christopher on chain and two tatty 10 shilling notes
£60-100
- 183 A modern Oris automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 28mm wide and 42mm high, silvered dial with date aperture, ref. 7497, appears to run well but the winder is loose and there is lots of signs of wear and useage, on a brown leather strap with Oris clasp
£150-250
- 184 Five various watches, including a (Smiths) Astral stainless steel with engraved back, a Citizen quartz, a Smiths manual wind, a Rotary and an Accurist
£50-100
- 185 A circa 1980s Piaget manual wind 18ct gold slim line dress wristwatch, 30mm circular case on an intergrated 18ct gold mesh link bracelet, 54.8g, with guilt dial having batons hallmarked to whole and numbered to rear cover 9117B11 and 91280, overall in good condition with minimal signs of wear but some minor scratches, and appears to be running
£1,500-2,500
- 186 A circa 1980s Favre-Leuba manual wind gold plated wristwatch, 31mm case with stainless steel back numbered 3613-51 and 1454, with blue dial, on leather strap, appears to be running well and movement clean, the case with some signs of wear
£50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 187 Five various watches, including a His & Hers Continental stainless steel pair of wrist watches, two other watches and a small silver open faced pocket watch, all as found £40-60
- 188 A mid 20th century Movado purse watch, 50mm when closed, covered in brown leather, 75mm open with self winding when opened and closed, pink tinge dial, dial slightly damaged and pitted, appears to run well, with stand, numbered 1237 and 420 M, some marks to leather
£80-120
- 189 Five lady's watches and a Dunhill gilt cigarette lighter, including a nice Chalet purse watch, running well, a gold plated pocket watch, As Found, a pendant watch, an Ernst Borel gold plated watch and a Seiko
£60-100
- 190 A collection of watch movements, including examples by Longines, Baume & Mercier, Accurist and many more, together with a Baume & Mercier watch box £60-100
- 191 A c1960s Sandford Bros. manual wind 14ct gold wristwatch head, 34mm, silver dial with batons, appears to run well, on a later leather strap
£200-300
- 192 Five various watches, including an 18ct gold cased open face pocket watch, 30mm, with base metal dust cover, 24.7g, an Avia 9ct gold lady's wristwatch head, 8.6g, a gun metal pocket watch, and two watches
£150-250
- 193 Six watch collector's boxes, As Found, three with 12 compartments, two with 6 and one with 3, all used and grubby and smell of smoke
£40-60
- 194 A modern Seiko 5 Sports Automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 44mm plus, black dial with markers and day and date apertures, green rotating bezel, appears to be running well, glazed rear cover, on a stainless steel Seiko strap, with four spare links, with a box, overall good just with some signs of wear from useage such as scratching
£80-120
- 195 A modern Tissot quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 44.5mm, with three subsidiaries to dial and two push button stopwatch facility, marked PRS 330, not currently running, on a rubber strap and with a box £50-100
- 196 An Art Deco period Cyma manual wind platinum and diamond lady's cocktail dress wristwatch head, 15mm wide and 30mm high, the bezel and shaped lugs with diamonds, on a black cotton strap, 10.7g total weight, appears to run £300-500
- 197 An Art Deco period manual wind platinum and diamond lady's cocktail dress wristwatch, 25.2g, rectangular case with shaped lugs and on platinum expanding strap, 11.5mm wide, appears to run £400-600
- 198 An Art Deco period manual wind platinum and diamond lady's cocktail dress wristwatch, 20mm square case with shaped lugs, with possibly stainless steel strap, total weight 23.7g, appears to run £500-700
- 199 A c1960s Tissot manual wind gold plated cased wristwatch head, 34mm, gilt numerals, appears to run, stainless steel cover, later expanding strap
£40-60
- 200 Seven vintage and modern mechanical wristwatches, including a Citizen automatic made for the Arabic market, all appear to run £60-100
- 201 Nine vintage and modern wristwatches, including a manual wind Sekonda Alarm, four automatic examples and others
£60-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 202 A group of wristwatches, including a boxed Bulova, Stauer, Invicta, and Mappin & Webb example, together with a Citizen Eco-Drive, two by Ricoh, and others £60-100
- 203 A c1990s Breitling Colt Quartz stainless steel wristwatch head, 38mm plus, silvered dial with date aperture, ref. A57035, appears to run, on a later strap, lots of wear from useage £100-200
- 204 A c2000 Tag Heuer Professional quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 37mm plus, gray dial with date aperture, ref. WL1111, appears to run, lots of signs of wear, on Tag stainless steel bracelet £200-300
- 205 A c1990s Seiko5 Automatic stainless steel wristwatch head, 36.5mm, red dial with date aperture, appears to run, signs of wear and useage, on a later black leather strap
£40-60
- 206 Three Orient automatic wristwatches, largest 44mm, each marked Crystal, all running, typical wear (3) £60-100
- 207 Three Seiko 5 automatic wristwatches and a Lucerne watch, all running, one sounds like it has a loose part (4) £60-100
- 208 A collection of watches, including a pocket watch with enamelled front with horse and foal, and various ladies and gents watches
£50-80
- 209 A modern Dunhill automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 25mm by 41mm case, silvered dial with numerals and date aperture, with thick stepped glass and numbered UF 10318 and 8020, running very well and overall good condition with minor signs of wear and useage, on Dunhill stainless steel bracelet
£300-500
- 210 An early 20th century Dunhill manual wind limited edition 18ct gold cased wristwatch head, 26mm, with silvered dial with numerals and subsidiary, numbered 14 of 250, running well and overall very good condition just some minor signs of wear, 31.2g, lacks strap
£600-800
- 211 A modern Dunhill quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 35mm with white dial haivng Roman numerals and date aperture, gold bezel, running well, with stainless steel bracelet with gold centre, overall very good and only minor signs of wear and useage
£150-250
- 212 A modern Dunhill quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 28mm by 47mm case, black dial with numerals and date aperture, thick wave glass, numbered to lower GB04611500 with bulldog head to rear cover, running well, on black leather strap with stainless steel AD clasp, overall very good and only minor signs of wear and useage
£150-250
- 213 A modern Dunhill quartz 18ct gold wristwatch, 35mm , with blue enamel bezel, blue dial with gilt Roman numeral and date aperture, running well, on black leather strap with 18ct gold folding AD clasp, overall very good and just minor signs of wear and useage, gross weight is 84.9g
£1,000-2,000
- 214 A modern Dunhill Dunhillion quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 29mm by 47mm case, black dial with three subsidiaries and having two push button stopwatch facility, with thick stepped glass and numbered UF 121858 and 8033, running and functioning well and overall good condition but with of wear and useage, on Dunhill stainless steel bracelet
£150-250
- 215 An early 20th century Dunhill manual wind limited edition two tone 18ct gold cased wristwatch head, 26mm, with silvered dial with numerals, numbered 14 of 250, running well and overall good condition just some minor signs of wear such as light scratches, 36.8g, lacks strap
£600-800
- 216 A group of eight vintage Smiths manual wind wristwatches, including two Empire's and a De Luxe, and others (8)
£80-120

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 217 Three vintage Smiths manual wind wristwatches, As Found, one larger jewellerd example with arrow to seconds hand, running but dial scratthes, antoher with gold plated front, running but dial dmaaged, and another overwound (3) £50-100
- 218 A group of six vintage Smiths manual wind wristwatches, As Found, including two Empire's and others (6) £60-100
- 219 Two vintage Diver's style wrsiwatches, including a Cardinal Navy, running, glass scratthed, and a Tara All Sport, not running (2) £60-100
- 220 A vintage Mortima Super 28 Super Datomatic manual wind Diver's chromed case wristwatch, 43mm, black dial with date aperture, rotating inner bezel with upper crown, with rotating outer bezel, stainless steel rear cover, running, signs of wear, on black plastic strap
£80-120
- 221 A vintage Sicura Computer manual wind Diver's chromed case wristwatch, 43mm, black dial with date aperture, rotating inner bezel with upper crown, with rotating outer bezel, stainless steel rear cover, running, quite a lot of damage to case and other signs of wear, on black leather strap
£80-120
- 222 A vintage Sicura Chrono manual wind chromed case wristwatch, 41mm, black dial with two subsiduaries and date aperture, two push button stopwatch facility, not functioning correctly but running, stainless steel rear cover, quite a lot of scratches to case and other signs of wear, on brown leather strap
£50-100
- 223 A c1980s Longines quartz stainless steel wristwatch head, As Found, 33mm, lacks glass and not running, together with another Longines style watch (2) £40-60
- 224 A vintage Kelton manual wind chrome cased wristwatch head, 38mm, with chequer board to dial and having date aperture, with Timex movement, running, on later leather strap
£40-60
- 225 A c1960s Smiths Astral manual wind 9ct gold presentation wristwatch, 33mm, silvered dial, runing, with British Railway engraved inscription to rear cover, on later black leather strap, gross weight 30.5g, with plastic Smiths Astral box (2) £80-120
- 226 A c1960s Smiths De Luxe manual wind 9ct gold wristwatch, 31mm, cream dial with subsidiary, not engraved, appears to run, on later brown leather strap, gross weight 30g
£80-120
- 227 A c1960s Smiths Astral manual wind 9ct gold wristwatch, 33mm, white, not engraved, appears to run, on later brown leather strap, gross weight 30.5g
£80-120
- 228 A c1960s Smiths Astral manual wind 9ct gold wristwatch, 30mm, cream dial with subsidiary, not engraved, appears to run, on later black leather strap, gross weight 24.6g
£70-100
- 229 A modern Tissot Seastar 660 quartz Diver's stainless steel wristwatch, 41mm, not runinng, with box, appears unworn, box grubby
£100-200
- 230 A c1960s Rado automatic Purple Horse stainless steel and gold plated wristwatch, 36mm, gilt dial with day and date apertures, runing, lots of signs of wear, on later brown leather strap
£80-120
- 231 A vintage Hamilton manual wind stainless steel wristwatch, 28.5mm square case, silver dial with batons, running well, on black leather tapered strap with H to buckle
£60-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 232 A group of five vintage manual wind wristwatches, including an example from Favre-Leuba, Zenith, Smiths and two others (5) £60-100
- 233 Three vintage wristwatches, each in a card box, including an Accurist automatic, running, a Roamer manual wind, running, and an Oris manual wind, not running £50-100
- 234 A c1970s Roamer Mustang automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 38.5mm, grey dial with orange batons and date aperture, seconds hand with red arrow, running well, lots of signs of wear, on a later stainless steel bracelet £60-100
- 235 A vintage Tissot Seastar T12 automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 35mm, silvered dial with batons, running but lots of signs of wear and needs a good overhaul, on a later Tissot black leather strap with buckle
£50-100
- 236 A collection of vintage and modern wristwatches, As Found, including a Saga Electric, a Next automatic and a quartz example, a Pulsar and others £50-100
- 237 Thirteen novelty wristwatches, As Found, including three with Mickey Mouse, one in Disney box, a cute Sekonda with cat having moving eyes, three Snoopy watches, a Smurf watch, a Hopalong Cassidy wxample, a small watch with rodeo, and three others £80-120
- 238 A group of eight vintage mechanical wristwatches, all appear to run, including a Curtis automatic example, a Sindaco Memo Pilote, running but stopwatch facility not functioning correctly, and others £80-120
- 239 Three vintage Citizen mechanical stainless steel wristwatches, including an interesting Citizen Alarm Date, running and alarm functions, together with two Automatic examples, also running, all with signs of wear
£120-180
- 240 A 1950s Omega manual wind stainless steel RAF Issued "Fat Arrow" wristwatch head, 37mm, black dial with sweeping seconds hand, circled T and broad arrow, rear cover marked with braod arrow and 6645 101000 and 6B/542 and 7316/53, Case & Rear Cover: lots of signs of wear including scratching and small dents and also dirt, Glass: appears to be replaced with a Perspex glass in 1999, some scratched and wear, Movement: overall ok and some light scractching and wear, running well and numbered 12804442, will need replacement gasket and sealing properly, Crown: replaced but original still present, Bracelet: no strap. SOLD with a repair receipt from 1999
£600-1,000
- 241 A c1940s Omega manual wind Military issued chromed and stainless steel wristwatch head, 32.5mm wide, black dial with numerals and white hour and minute hands and a replaced seconds hand, numbered to rear stainless steel cover with broad arrow and 6B/159 and A23004, on a later leather strap. Case: heavily worn and lacking chrome plating, Glass: replaced Perspex with scratches, Dial: scratched, Movement: running well but some dirt and scratches, Crown: replaced £200-300
- 242 A WWII period open faced pocket watch and three other watches, the military issued watch with broad arrow and G.S. Mk II and A 75354 to rear cover, together with a Norvic pocket watch, a stopwatch and an Excalibur manual wind wristwatch (4) £60-80
- 243 A 1930s Omega watch movement, numbered 9821377, presented in a stainless steel 36mm case with white dial and centre seconds, with a cover that does not fit well having engraved A.M. with 6B/159 and 1377/36, running and typical wear to whole, crown pitted, the case and movement appear to be a 1930s RAF pilot's watch but the back does not appear right, buyer beware and viewing essential as no returns
£200-400

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 244 A WWII period Grana manual wind military issue chromed wristwatch head, lacks broad arrow to dial and back cover may have a replacement, 34 mm, black dial with subsidiary, the movement numbered KF321, rear cover number D347986H. Case: lots of signs of wear and scratching and dents and chrome plating missing in several areas and lugs mishapen, Glass: later Perspex and relatively good condition, Dial: dot hour markers painted black and luminous sections in hands with some rust spots and some rust to hands, Movement: running well and overall good just light dirt and marks, Crown: some wear and small dents, Bracelet: none
£300-500
- 245 A WWII period Vertex manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" chromed wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, numbered 444 to case, stainless steel rear cover with WWW and broad arrow and number A 444 and 3513360. Case: lots of plate worn and small dents and scratches, and lugs mishapen, Glass: later Perspex with some marks, Dial: overall ok and some wear to luminous markers and also within hands, some rusty patches to hands, other light marks to dial, Movement: running nicely and only minor wear and dirt, Crown: stainless steel and with some wear such as scratches and dents, Bracelet: none but with a canvas later strap
£800-1,200
- 246 A WWII period Record manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen style" chromed wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with subsidiary and having number 10034 and broad arrow, case stamped with number 943, the movement with stamped number 022 K, rear cover with WWW and broad arrow and number L20943 and 538790. Case: scratched and dents and strange wear to end of lugs and lugs slightly mishapen, Glass: Perspex with minor scratching, Dial: overall fair and scratch at 5 and other typical wear, Movement: running well and quite clean just some wear and minor dirt and rear stainless steel cover with some larger scratches and other wear, Crown: some wear and dents, Bracelet: none but with a canvas strap
£400-600
- 247 A WWII period Eterna manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" stainless steel wristwatch head, 36mm, black dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, the movement numbered 3093782, rear cover with broad arrow and number P 3808 and 3113126. Case: overall fair but some dents and scratches, the lugs are also slightly bent, Glass: scratched and mostly in a circular fashion, Dial: pitted and and some rust to hands, Movement: running but will need attention and quite a bit of scratching and some dirt, Crown: appears original and has typical wear, Bracelet: none
£800-1,200
- 248 A WWII period Omega manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" stainless steel wristwatch head, 36 mm, black dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, the movement numbered 10302120, rear cover with WWW and broad arrow and number Y3991 and 10668190, same to inner. Case: typical scratches and dents, fixed lugs slightly mishapen, rear cover with scratches, Glass: Perspex with small scratches and wear, Dial: small scratches to centre, numbers 12, 3 and 9 repainted dots and possibly seconds hand and other typical wear, Movement: running well and overall good just minor dirt and wear, Crown: dents and wear, Bracelet: no
£600-1,000
- 249 A WWII period Timor manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" chromed wristwatch head, 36 mm, black dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, the movement stamped Cal. 6060 and 15 jewels, rear cover with TIMOR and broad arrow with WWW and number K 182 and 30082, with inner dust cover. Case: scratched and with marks and some chrome losses with fixed lugs mishapen and possibly repaired and small blob of solder to lower lug, rear cover with scratches, Glass: Perspex with some scratches and wear, Dial: notable mark at 3 o'clock and other typical wear, Movement: running well and some scratches and dirt, Crown: small dents and wear, Bracelet: none
£500-800
- 250 A WWII period Cyma manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" stainless steel wristwatch case front and movement, 37 mm, black dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, the movement numbered 380186 and cal 234. Case: scratched and with wear, Glass: Perspex with small scratches, Dial: repainted white seconds hand, lacks dots for 1 and 5, some rust to hands, quite a bit of wear and luminous paint with wear and possibly redone, Movement: running well and relatively clean but some scratches and dirt, lacks dust cover and having possibly replacement later rear cover, viewing advised, Crown: typical wear, Bracelet: none
£200-400

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 251 A WWII period Cyma manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" stainless steel wristwatch case front and movement, 37 mm, with replacement white enamel dial and a replacement rear cover, the 15 jewel movement numbered 383741 and cal 234, appears to run, with dust cover, lugs bent and typical wear £80-120
- 252 A WWII period Record manual wind military issue "Dirty Dozen" chromed wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with subsidiary and broad arrow, case stamped with number 821, the 15 jewel movement with stamped number 022 K, rear cover with WWW and broad arrow and number L28049 and 545896. Case: scratched and dented and several areas of chrome plate missing and lugs slightly mishapen, rear cover with scratches and dents, Glass: Perspex with scratching, Dial: sadly with repainted numbers and missing seconds hand and hands appear to have been replaced and other typical wear, Movement: running well and but some wear and scratches and minor dirt, Crown: possibly replaced and some wear and dents, Bracelet: none
£200-300
- 253 A 1970s Hamilton manual wind military issue stainless steel wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with T in circle and broad arrow, rear of case with broad arrow and number 523-8290 and W10 6645-99 and 9788/73. Case: signs of wear and typical useage, Glass: some minor marks, Dial: appears good just typical wear, Movement: running but not inspected, Crown: some wear, Bracelet: canvas strap
£100-200
- 254 A 1970s Hamilton manual wind military issue stainless steel wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with Geneve and T in circle and broad arrow, rear of case with broad arrow and number 6bb/5238290 and 1588/73. Case: signs of wear and light scratches, Glass: some minor marks, Dial: appears good just typical wear, Movement: running but not inspected, Crown: some wear, Bracelet: canvas strap
£100-200
- 255 A mid 20th century Vertex manual wind military issue stainless steel wristwatch head, 32 mm, silvered dial with subsidiary and having broad arrow, rear cover with worn broad arrow and number 369025. Case: typical wear such as scratching and dents and rear cover the same, Glass: later Perspex with some marks, Dial: some wear to numerals and dirt and marks, Movement: running well but some wear and scratches and one possible screw missing, Crown: some typical wear, Bracelet: none
£50-100
- 256 A c1970s CWC manual wind military issue stainless steel wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with centre seconds and having broad arrow, sadly the rear has had the numbers worn and polished mostly out. Case: with scratches and typical wear and as metioned numbers not very vsible, Glass: some mnor marks, Dial: good just some wear to numbers, Movement: not inspected but running, Crown: some wear, Bracelet: none
£80-120
- 257 A c1970s Roamer Anfibio manual wind military issue stainless steel wristwatch head, 35 mm, black dial with red and white centre seconds hand, rear cover numbers MOD 520-1120 016. Case: with signs of use such as scratches and dents, Glass: some maks, Dial: good just minor wear, Movement: running but not inspected, Crown: with R and some wear, Bracelet: none £100-200
- 258 Six 1980s and later quartz military style wristwatches, including a Seiko, a Constad and four other US examples, AF (6) £50-100
- 259 Four 1980s and later quartz military issue wristwatches, with an example from CWC, Pulsar, Precista and BWC, all marked to rear coers, all worn (4)
£150-250
- 260 A 1990s MWC quart South African military wristwatch, 35 mm, black dial with centre seconds and having T in circle, rear cover with Zuid Afrika and numbered 5891-92 and 758. Case: possibly coated as there is some pitting to rear and some minor wear, Glass: good, Dial: good, Movement: not inspected or running, Crown: good, Bracelet: canvas strap
£50-100

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 261 Three vintage manual wind US military issue wristwatches, two with black unmarked dials, having stamped numbers and writing to rear covers, one from Waltham and one Bulova, together with a Bulova example stamped to rear cover with ORD DEPT. U.S.A OF. 93583 (3)
£100-200
- 262 Five mid 20th century and later manual wind military style wristwatches, with an example from Helios, Stowa, hmt, Silvana and Aster, AF (5)
£100-200
- 263 Three Timor manual wind military issue chromed wristwatches, each with numbered stainless steel backs, two with ATP, all running but in very worn conditions (3) £200-300
- 264 A mid 20th century Wes End Watch Co automatic military issue stainless steel, 33 mm, black dial with centre seconds and day and date apertures, rear cover with broad arrow and number H 4702 and 4485, running and signs of wear £50-100
- 265 Five mid 20th century and later manual wind military style wristwatches, each stamped ATP with numbers to rear covers, each with silvered unmarked dials (5)
£100-200
- 266 Four mid 20th century and later Moeris manual wind military chromed wristwatches, each with stainless steel stamped ATP and with numbers, all worn and AF but running (4)
£150-250
- 267 Four mid 20th century and later manual wind military chromed wristwatches, with an example from Buren, KM, Helevetia and Leonidas, each with stainless steel stamped with numbers, all worn and AF, three running but not Leonidas (4) £80-120
- 268 Five mid 20th century and later manual wind military style wristwatches, AF, including a Leonidas, Unitas, a Cortebert and two others (5) £60-100
- 269 Four mid 20th century and later manual wind military chromed wristwatches, each stamped ATP with numbers to stainless steel rear covers, each with silvered unmarked dials, all AF but running (4) £70-100
- 270 A late 1970s Omega Automatic gold plated wristwatch, 35mm, with silvered dials having batons and date aperture, on gold plated Omega bracelet, with box, booklet and service papers from 1990. Case: scratched and worn. Glass: replaced Perspex with minor marks. Movement: running well and some signs of dirt, numbered 40565893, rear cover quite dirty and scratched. Crown: good but may have been replaced in 1990. Bracelet: scratched and quite a lot of the plating now worn off, but clasp snaps well
£200-300
- 271 A late 1970s Omega Quartz De Ville stainless steel wristwatch, sold with the original stainless steel bracelet, 34mm case on with white dial having batons and date aperture, on a later black leather strap, with a box, AF, and partial outer card box with a booklet and guarantee booklet and original invoice dated 1978. Case: some scratched and small dents. Glass: Appears good, not Omega. Movement: not running, old battery, some dirt, cover appears good but some small dents and scratched. Crown: Not Omega branded. Bracelet: currently not on watch but some signs of wear, watch on a worn leather strap with non-Omega buckle. Box: damaged and hinges loose
£150-250
- 272 An early 1970s Omega manual wind stainless steel wristwatch head, 35mm, silvered dial with batons, sold with guarantee dated 1973 and two booklets. Case: lots of signs of wear including scratching and small dents. Glass: good and Perspex with Omega logo. Movement: in good condition and quite clean but some marks and dirt and running well, numbered 32670963, rear cover with scratches and marks. Crown: possibly replaced but is an Omega and in good condition. Bracelet: no
£150-250

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 273 A c1960s Omega manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 33mm with satin dial with Arabic numerals, Case: scratches and small dents and lots of signs of wear, Glass: replaced with Perspex with small scratches. Movement: running well but not inspected, Crown: Omega with some wear, Bracelet: replaced with expanding strap
£150-250
- 274 A 1970s Omega manual wind 9ct gold ladies wristwatch, 24.5 mm octagonal case on an integrated 9ct gold bracelet, 36.6g, movement numbered 34566622, with Omega box and papers £500-700
- 275 A c1970s Omega Seamaster Quartz stainless steel lady's wristwatch, 28mm case, with black dial, having date aperture on black leather strap with stainless steel Omega buckle clasp, not currently running, overall good but signs of use such as scratches to case and glass
£60-100
- 276 A c1990s Omega Seamaster Titane Quartz wristwatch, 31.5mm, with grey dial and date aperture, embellished in gold to case, on a stainless steel bracelet, with Omega box, outer card box tatty. Case: scratched and worn and small dents, Glass: appears good, Movement: not inspected, Crown: original and some wear, Bracelet: lots of sign of wear and use £250-350
- 277 Three Omega watch boxes and two Longines watch boxes, As Found, one square Omega box, hinge damaged, and two further long examples, along with a long and a rectangular Longines examples (5) £50-100
- 278 A 1960s Omega manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 34mm, 27.8g, silvered dial with batons and date aperture. Case: some minor scratching and small dents, Glass: pitted and minor scratches, Movement: running well and nice and clean but some minor scratches, Crown: possibly replaced but is an Omega, Bracelet: lacks strap
£200-300
- 279 Two 1980s Omega De Ville quartz stainless steel and gold plated wristwatches, his and hers, 32.5mm and 22mm, not running and the gents version is much more worn, with two bracelet section and a guarantee £100-200
- 280 A c1960s Omega manual wind gold cased wristwatch, 33mm, silver dial with batons, appears to run well, on later brown leather strap, signs of wear and useage such as glass scratched and case marked, movement not inspected
£200-300
- 281 A 1970s Omega manual wind 9ct gold wristwatch head, 33mm, gilt dial with batons, appears to run, engraved to rear cover, with a Garrard box and outer cardboard box. Case: signs of wear such as scratches and dents, Glass: replaced Perspex with crack and wear, Movement: not inspected but running, Crown: possibly replaced by an Omega, some wear, Bracelet: replaced strap
£150-250
- 282 An Omega watch box, c1970s, in good condition
£40-60
- 283 A group of Omega watch movements, including one Constellation Automatic, dial is 27.7mm and movement is 28mm, appears to run, together with two manual wind gents movements and several ladies examples
£50-100
- 284 Two Omega watch boxes, one scruffy example (2)
£40-60
- 285 A 1980s Omega Speedmaster 4.5 Automatic stainless steel wristwatch, 41.5mm, ref. 176.0012, black dial with three subsidiary dials and day and date apertures, two push button stopwatch facility, with tachymetre to outer bezel, with stainless steel Seamaster back cover and on a later leather strap, with an Omega maroon box. Case: Some wear and scratching and small denting from useage, Glass: small chip and some scratches, Movement: Not inspected but is running well, Crown: good but some wear, Bracelet: replaced strap
£1,500-2,500

Watch & Clock Auction, 21st Oct, 2025 10:00

- 286 A c1970s Omega Quartz stainless steel wristwatch, 35mm, silvered dial with batons and date aperture, on a stainless steel Omega bracelet, appears to run. Case: Signs of wear with scratches and small dents, Glass: Omega symbol to Perspex with scratching and wear, Movement: Not inspected, Crown: Appears original Omega and worn, Bracelet: Slightly loose / baggy with signs of wear and useage
£100-200
- 287 A c1980s Omega Seamaster Quartz gold plated wristwatch head, 34mm, gilt dial with batons and date aperture, stainless steel rear cover, on later strap with spare links. Case: Small dents and scratching but overall OK, Glass: small scratches, Movement: Not inspected, Crown: Original but worn, Bracelet: replaced gold plated example £80-120
- 288 A c1960s Tudor manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 32mm, cream dial with numerals and subsidiary, appears to run, in Rolex hallmarked case, typical wear to case and dial, on a later leather strap
£150-250
- 289 A late 1950s Rolex Precision manual wind 9ct gold cased wristwatch head, 32mm with satin dial and part numerals and subsidiary, appears to run well, typical wear to case and dial and glass, on a later leather strap
£500-1,000